

Research Paper Skills
Parenthetical Documentation - MLA
Assessment

Directions: Some of the excerpts below have errors in the citations. If there is an error, select the option that illustrates the correct way to cite borrowed information from a source.

1. Abby blamed Tituba for forcing her to go to the woods. "She made me do it, she made Betty do it" (p.931). Therefore, Tituba was questioned and beat for her wrong doings.
 - a. "She made me do it, she made Betty do it" (Arthur Miller 931).
 - b. "She made me do it, she made Betty do it" (Miller 931).
 - c. Abby blamed Tituba for forcing her to go to the woods. "She made me do it, she made Betty do it." Therefore, Tituba was questioned and beat for her wrong doings (Miller 931).
 - d. "She made me do it, she made Betty do it." (931).
 - e. MAKE NO CHANGE

2. It came to John's day of hanging, he talked to Elizabeth about not wanting to die and living for his family. Elizabeth's only response to that was: "I cannot judge you John, I cannot."(989).
 - a. Elizabeth's only response to that was: "I cannot judge you, John, I cannot" (Miller 989).
 - b. Elizabeth's only response to that was: "I cannot judge you, John, I cannot (Miller 989)."
 - c. Elizabeth's only response to that was: "I cannot judge you, John, I cannot" (pg. 989).
 - d. Elizabeth's only response to that was: "I cannot judge you, John, I cannot" (Miller, 989).
 - e. MAKE NO CHANGE

3. "Because it is my name! Because I cannot have another in my life! Because I lie and sign myself to lies! Because I am not worth the dust on the feet of them that hang! How may I live without my name? I have given you my soul; leave me my name!" (Miller 993).
 - a. "Because it is my name! Because I cannot have another in my life! Because I lie and sign myself to lies! Because I am not worth the dust on the feet of them that hang! How may I live without my name? I have given you my soul; leave me my name" (993)!
 - b. "Because it is my name! Because I cannot have another in my life! Because I lie and sign myself to lies! Because I am not worth the dust on the feet of them that hang! How may I live without my name? I have given you my soul; leave me my name!" (Miller pg. 993).

- c. "Because it is my name! Because I cannot have another in my life! Because I lie and sign myself to lies! Because I am not worth the dust on the feet of them that hang! How may I live without my name? I have given you my soul; leave me my name" (Miller, 993).
 - d. "Because it is my name! Because I cannot have another in my life! Because I lie and sign myself to lies! Because I am not worth the dust on the feet of them that hang! How may I live without my name? I have given you my soul; leave me my name!" (Miller).
 - e. MAKE NO CHANGE
- 4. "I am a stranger here as you know. And in my ignorance I find it hard to draw clear opinion of them that come accused before the court,"(945) states Hale to Elizabeth Proctor.
 - a. "I am a stranger here as you know. And in my ignorance I find it hard to draw clear opinion of them that come accused before the court"(Miller 945) states Hale to Elizabeth Proctor.
 - b. "I am a stranger here as you know. And in my ignorance I find it hard to draw clear opinion of them that come accused before the court" states Hale to Elizabeth Proctor (Miller 945).
 - c. "I am a stranger here as you know. And in my ignorance I find it hard to draw clear opinion of them that come accused before the court" states Hale to Elizabeth Proctor (Arthur Miller pg. 945).
 - d. "I am a stranger here as you know. And in my ignorance I find it hard to draw clear opinion of them that come accused before the court states Hale to Elizabeth Proctor" (Miller 945).
 - e. MAKE NO CHANGE
- 5. With much trust in his wife, John defends his wife against the court when he explains to Mr. Danforth, "My wife cannot lie" (Miller 973).
 - a. With much trust in his wife, John defends his wife against the court when he explains to Mr. Danforth, "My wife cannot lie" (Miller pg. 973).
 - b. With much trust in his wife, John defends his wife against the court when he explains to Mr. Danforth, "My wife cannot lie" (Arthur Miller, pg. 973).
 - c. With much trust in his wife, John defends his wife against the court when he explains to Mr. Danforth, "My wife cannot lie (Miller 973)"
 - d. With much trust in his wife, John defends his wife against the court when he explains to Mr. Danforth, "My wife cannot lie" (Proctor 973).
 - e. MAKE NO CHANGE